

"What Paul Harris Said"

A Feature of ROTARY GLOBAL HISTORY FELLOWSHIP – DECEMBER 2009

HOLIDAYS

"However, after five years of folly it was difficult at first for the boy, now a young man, to settle down and become wise. He was dreadfully lonesome particularly on holidays and Sundays. He pondered the question of finding a way to increase his acquaintance with young men who had come to Chicago from farms and colleges, who knew the joys of friendliness and neighbourliness without form or ceremony but it took a long while for his thinking to produce results." Paul P. Harris "My Road to Rotary" 1947, chapter 32. www.whatpaulharriswrote.org/library/myroad/MyRoadToRotary/MRTRChapter_32.htm from the text version by DGE Don Murphy.

Your assignment, if you chose to accept it, is to read chapter 32. It's short, and will help you increase your interest in how Harris got the idea, and in other Global History of Rotary found from this page. I suggest that reading Harris will lead you to other Rotary leaders and to a love of Rotary's Global History.

Best wishes for the holidays,

Enjoy history,

Jack Selway

RGHF CEO

"What Paul Harris Said," started in December of 2001

This is our longest running RGHF Feature.

Please pass this on to your club, district, and zone.

To read this feature, online, please visit www.whatpaulharrissaid.org then click on this month's feature with the flashing "new" button

Watch next week for RGHF's feature "Our Foundation Newsletter"

This feature is from Rotary Global History Fellowship www.rghf.org

Most of our subscribers are not RGHF members, but you can join at www.joinrghf.org

If you do not have an RGHF pin, then you are probably not a member.

New history articles www.recentposts.org

Change of address www.historycomment.org

Please invite your friends to join our list.

Follow everything on RGHF on Facebook: www.historyfan.org

